Each year on the Sunday before Thanksgiving, Orthodox faithful across the US thank God for the privilege of serving the least of our brethren through IOCC. The Assembly of Bishops has named it A Day of Sharing. On this day, we consider IOCC’s global work and the ways you sustain it: by providing food, water, shelter, and medicine to refugees, offering economic opportunity to farmers in northern Greece, training healthcare workers in Ethiopia, and so much more. Please consider giving a gift of compassion today.

IOCC, the official humanitarian agency of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America, has provided over $692 million in humanitarian relief and development programs to people in need in more than 60 countries.
